Consistent and manageable tolerability profile

Oncura demonstrated a tolerability profile consistent with EGFR-targeted therapies, with most adverse events being low grade and manageable.*

Low rates of treatment discontinuation
Due to adverse events

Most adverse events were Grade 1–2
Mild to moderate in severity

Dose modifications supported continued therapy
In most patients

No unexpected safety signals observed
In the phase III study

*Based on phase III clinical trial data.